

Threat Management Resources

• ACTIVE THREAT

Preventing and Reacting To A Violent Threat

Description: Protect yourself from an immediate threat of violence. Experience the decision-making process through scenario and option based training that could mean the difference between life and death.

Understand the importance of having an emergency plan in place, and how it can help mitigate the damage and injury resulting from a potentially harmful incident.

Schedule: Schedule a session for your employees at your location or in our classroom!

1 session (2 hours)

Price: $1,000. (Per session)

Optional: $500. Vulnerability/safety walk-through with summarized recommendations.

Contact information: Rebecca Bolante, 503.399.2555 or Rebecca.bolante@chemeketa.edu

Sample agenda:

Active Shooter Reaction Training

1. Introduction

- Overview of the importance of being prepared
- Best practices
- Threat Assessment (reporting early)
- Warning behaviors and pre-incident indicators

2. Tools and terms

- Safety check, and briefing

3. Stationary shooting vs. moving target demo

4. Active countermeasure demo

Scenarios-

- Over-view, directly outside of door
- Evacuate-(threat) at the end of hall
- Shelter in place-(threat) outside of room. Shooter enters and shoots
- Barricade-(threat) outside of room. Role players work on barricading techniques
- Threat outside of room, shooter breaches door. Role players react with countermeasures
- Reactionary drill- respond to stimulus

5. Questions and Answers

Discover
Chemeketa
Community College

Chemeketa Community College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and educational institution. To request this publication in an alternative format, please call 503.399.5192. For a disability related accommodation, please contact Disability Services at least two weeks prior to this event at 503.399.5192 (TTY/voice) or disability@chemeketa.edu.